

Death Of Pilot Muddles New Assassination Probe

Inquiry Begun Into Another 'Suicide' Death

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Authorities are investigating the death of a Florida man two years ago at the request of his brother who said he wanted a fresh probe because of the current investigation in New Orleans of the Kennedy assassination.

The brother, Earl Killam, said the dead man, Thomas Henry Killam, told him he fled Dallas in December, 1963, because he was being harassed by "agents." Killam said his brother didn't specify whether the agents were federal, state or some other type.

"I'm a dead man," Killam quoted his brother as saying. "I've run as far as I'm going to run."

Wanda Killam, the dead man's wife, reached Wednesday in Dallas by the Pensacola News-Journal, said her husband had been questioned several times about the assassination by federal agents.

Killam died beside a broken shop window on a Pensacola street March 19, 1964. His throat had been slashed.

Police said the death was an apparent suicide. The coroner called it accidental.

Earl Killam, 38, a car salesman, has asked Escambia County Solicitor Carl Harper to exhume his brother's body to determine the exact cause of death.

Harper said he took a statement from Earl Killam Wednesday morning and would investigate immediately.

Wanda Killam said her husband returned to Florida in early December, 1963, saying he was going to look for a job. She stayed in Dallas, where she had been employed for several years as hostess in a night club owned by Jack Ruby.

Ruby, who died in a panic while in custody, was charged with the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy in Dallas on Nov. 22, 1963.

She said her husband was briefly employed in Dallas as a house painter by a man named Jack Carter. Earl Killam said Carter once roomed in the same Dallas boarding house as Oswald.

Killam said that after his brother returned to Florida he spent four months in Tampa and then returned to Pensacola March 15 to live with her mother.

Two days later, he was dead. Thomas Killam received a

U.S. Unleashes Vast Cong Base Assault

SAIGON, (AP) — American troops deployed in the jungles of North Vietnam today in the biggest offensive of the Vietnam war.

Spearheaded by paratroopers making the first U.S. combat jump of the conflict, some 45,000 fighting men struck near the Cambodian border Wednesday to encircle the Viet Cong's long-time main operating base and reputed national headquarters.

The drive covered a Tay Ninh Province area ranging from 50 to 75 miles northwest of Saigon. Reports from the battle area said initial resistance was light, with U.S. forces encountering only enemy sniper fire and booby traps.

The new drive was announced by Gen. William C. Westmoreland's headquarters. It was described as of multidivision size and given the code name of Operation Junction City.

The operation was preceded by four softening up raids by B-52 bombers on Wednesday, just before some 750 paratroopers jumped into blocking positions behind enemy lines and barely three miles from Cambodia.

The big Stratofortresses returned today for a fifth raid when the operation was 24 hours old.

The high-flying B-52s struck today at a Viet Cong base camp 25 miles north of Tay Ninh City and close to Cambodia.

Ground action was reported light throughout South Vietnam Wednesday by both the U.S. and South Vietnamese high commands.

South Vietnamese troops uncovered two large Viet Cong arms caches in the Mekong Delta which included six tons of enemy ammunition and eight 75mm artillery pieces. A Vietnamese spokesman said the Viet Cong intended to use the cannon to form their first artillery battalion.

The Viet Cong have not used artillery to any extent so far in the war. A Vietnamese spokesman said the eight cannon seized were believed to be American made and had been mounted on wheels by the Viet Cong.

Garrison Says Man Was Ready To Talk

NEW ORLEANS, La. — (AP) Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison hinted today that free-lance pilot Davis W. Ferrie carried to his grave some secrets about President John F. Kennedy's assassination.

Ferrie, 48, who described himself as a psychologist and private detective as well as a flyer, was found dead in his bed Wednesday.

Garrison, the 6-foot-6 gun-toting prosecutor, called the death "apparent suicide."

The coroner, Dr. Nicholas Chetta, said tests were not complete but death seemed due to a massive brain hemorrhage, with no sign of suicide except a curious, unsigned, undated note saying death was a "sweet prospect."

Ferrie was on the brink of producing information that could have been important, said Garrison, whose assassination probe — started long after the Warren Commission finished its work — has created an international sensation.

Ready To Talk
"We felt that he was really now ready to talk candidly, to contribute to this important investigation," said Garrison.

"Now he's gone and it will be much harder to make the connections between certain people. But I'm sure we'll make them anyway."

"I'm just as optimistic today as I was two days ago."

Two days ago, Garrison was insisting that his effort to prove a conspiracy in the assassination of President Kennedy will result in arrests and convictions.

The President was shot in Dallas, Tex., Nov. 22, 1963. Garrison insists that a conspiracy to murder him was conceived in New Orleans.

No "credible evidence" of a conspiracy was found by the Warren Commission, which said Kennedy was killed by Lee Harvey Oswald—a former New Orleans resident—acting alone.

Planned Arrest
Garrison said his office had planned to take Ferrie into custody early next week. Because Ferrie had expressed fears for his life, Garrison said he provided him a temporary hideout at a motor hotel here.

Evidence developed by our office had long since confirmed that he was involved in events culminating in the assassination of President Kennedy," Garrison said.

The nude body of Ferrie, who operated a flying service here, was found in the calm posture of sleep, covered to the chest by a bedsheet.

His second floor apartment was in disarray and disorder. An American flag was in the living room. Although 15 bottles of various pills were on a table, the coroner said no drugs were found other than those used for vascular disease. He said Ferrie was born with a weak blood vessel at the base of his brain. It ruptured, producing a massive cerebral hemorrhage, Chetta said. Ferrie also suffered from high blood pressure and recently told a friend he had encephalitis (sleeping sickness).

Unsigned Note Found
An unsigned, undated note was found on the dining room table. The first paragraph said: "To leave this life is, for me, a sweet prospect. I find nothing in it that is desirable, and on the other hand everything that is loathsome."

Dr. Chetta said the time of Ferrie's death had to be before 4 a.m. Wednesday because of the rigor mortis condition. However, a newsmen for the Washington Post, George Lardner, said he had visited with Ferrie in his apartment until that hour.

Garrison said the conflicting statements constituted "one of the mysteries we don't understand."

In a copyrighted story appearing in today's Washington Post, Lardner said Ferrie "seemed in good spirits, not like a man about to kill himself" at the time they talked.

"Ferrie said he never knew Oswald and had no recollection of ever having met him," Lardner reported. He said Ferrie told him that Garrison's inquiry would turn out to be a "witch hunt."

Ferrie was brought into the scope of the assassination probe within 72 hours after Kennedy was slain Nov. 22, 1963. Garrison said he pulled Ferrie in for questioning at that time and subsequently turned him over to the FBI, which took a statement and released him.

West To Texas
A New Orleans florist, Edward Voebel, had seen Lee Harvey Oswald's picture on television and reported that he and Oswald had served in a Civil Air Patrol squadron under Ferrie. When authorities sought to question Ferrie, they found he had gone to Texas.

Ferrie told a newsmen recently that he and two friends took a short vacation trip to Texas the day of the assassination "on the spur of the moment." He said they visited Houston, Galveston and Alexandria, La., before returning home. They did not go to Dallas, he said.

Garrison said Ferrie's name figures in 40 pages of Warren Commission material — 36 of which he said are classified secret and unavailable. In Washington, it was reported that 18 of the pages were available for public examination.

Make Progress
Although Garrison said he considered Ferrie's death a suicide, he added, "I am not ruling out murder. I'm not ruling out anything. We have gone far beyond the point of the Warren Commission. We have made more progress in three months with a handful of men than the Warren Commission with 3,000 men made in three years."

Asked if he believed Oswald alone killed Kennedy, Garrison said: "I have no reason to believe that Lee Harvey Oswald killed anyone in Dallas. This is my personal feeling."

Ferrie had termed Garrison's investigation "a big joke." He said Garrison had him "pegged as the get-away pilot in an elaborate plot to kill Kennedy."

Farm Was Hideaway For Counterfeiters

Counterfeiters apparently did not print bogus $20 bills at a farm about one mile north of Menominee, although parts of a printing press used in the operation were found there, authorities said today in a continuing investigation.

Sheriff Edward Reindl of Menominee, whose deputies accompanied Secret Service agents in a search of the farm, said today that he could disclose no further information in the case that resulted in the arrest of two men in Columbus, Ohio.

Under arrest and waiting sentence is Philip Hastings, 35, son of the owners of the farm, who is one of the two men charged with two counts of possession of counterfeit bills.

Secret Service agents reported that Hastings "gave his name as Clifford Dean Hale at the time of his arrest. Hastings pleaded guilty before Federal Judge Joseph P. Kinneary at Columbus and the court continued the case for sentence to a later date."

Deadline Plate Sale Headache

LANSING (AP) — Although confined to a hospital bed with a slipped disc, Secretary of State James Hare still has time to worry about the plight of late license plate buyers.

License plate sales are lagging some 200,000 behind last year, Hare said.

Police will start ticketing motorists who don't have their 1967 plates on March 1.

"The final two days of next week—the 27th and 28th—shape up as chaos," Hare said. "And if we have bad weather to go with the inevitable long lines, it will be a mess at the branch offices throughout the state."

Doubt Insanity To Be Base In Speck Defense

PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — "We all agree that eight lovely girls were murdered. The issue in this case is: Who did it?"

Gerald W. Getty, the defender of Richard Speck, spoke these words Wednesday during the third day of Speck's trial as he questioned 33 veniremen.

"Does the state have evidence enough to prove this defendant did it?" Getty asked.

Speck, 25, who sat seemingly impassive during the proceedings, is accused of slaying eight student nurses July 14 in Chicago.

Getty's statements could be construed as an argument against reports that Speck's defense will be based on an insanity plea. Getty has given no indication what the defense will be.

Getty and William Martin, assistant state's attorney, turned down a panel of four jurors on five occasions Wednesday. Each time a fourth was selected, a previously accepted panel member was challenged by one of the counsels, leaving only three.

This action prevented the swearing of the first panel. Under Illinois law twelve jurors are selected in panels of four each plus a panel of two as alternates.

Of the 100 challenges allowed each counsel — 20 for each of the eight murder indictments being tried simultaneously — the prosecution has used 16, the defense four.

Many of the state's challenges were directed toward prospective women jurors, while the defense appeared to disfavor male veniremen.

Two days later, he was dead. Thomas Killam received a

Bell Expands

PLYMOUTH (AP) — Michigan Bell Telephone Co. broke ground Wednesday for a $12 million facility to house switching equipment for long distance calls in southeastern Michigan. The three-story building is one of the largest to be erected by Michigan Bell in recent years and will employ between 500 and 600 workers.

The letters are the central point of a trial involving a $2.5-million breach of promise suit by Mrs. Leber against William Brown, 65, heir to a Pittsburgh, Pa., coal fortune.

Mrs. Leber said that Brown jilted her after promising to marry her after she obtained a Mexican divorce from her husband in Heidelberg, Germany.

Brown, a sports car racing enthusiast, part-time rancher and yachtsman whose hobbies include photographing nude women, claims he only leased the dark-haired German woman.

Brown's attorney, Norman Hull, said the agreement was for Brown to pay Leber $40,000 for leasing his wife for one year.

Raymond F. Hayes, attorney for Mrs. Leber, said he would introduce the letters in U.S. District Court today, the second day of the trial.

"They will say that he promised to marry her," said Hayes. Brown, called to testify Tuesday as an adverse witness by Hayes, recounted how he met the Lebers as they were strolling nude on a beach at a German nudist resort.

"We were all nude," he testified.

U.P. Health Service Conference Planned

Community health needs for the Upper Peninsula were discussed at two meetings of the UPCAP Human Resources Council held Feb. 20 and 21 in Escanaba and Marquette.

Members of the Community Health Resources Committee, a committee of the UPCAP Human Resources Council, met Monday, Feb. 20, at the State Office Building in Escanaba. Dr. Gordon Eadie, director of the Alger-Luce-Mackinac-Schoolcraft Health District, is chairman of the committee.

The committee reviewed the recruitment program for health personnel which they had discussed at an earlier meeting. There were reports on the progress of the program which will include a survey of the needs for public health workers, the possibility of on the job or institution training programs for dental assistants and a study of school vocational guidance programs in health occupations.

Back Alcoholism Program
The committee also discussed working with local health officers and educational institutions on such questions as summer internship programs and other training programs in the community health field.

The committee voted to urge legislation to support the U. P. program in alcoholism and to support the new state flouridation bill.

Discussion of new health legislation centered around the comprehensive health planning and public health services amendments of 1966 and the comprehensive health planning amendments to the Economic Opportunity Act.

The first bill authorizes $154 million for comprehensive health planning for 1967 and 1968. Specifically, the act, which was approved by Congress in early November, 1966, calls for formula grants to states and areawide project grants to assist in financing comprehensive health planning that would identify public health needs and establish priorities for health services.

The Economic Opportunity Act health services amendments focus upon the needs of persons residing in urban or rural areas having high concentrations of poverty and a marked inadequacy of health services. Under the amendments, grants or contracts may be authorized to develop and implement comprehensive health service programs.

The UPCAP Human Resources Council, under the direction of Charles Folio of Escanaba, met Tuesday, Feb. 21, at Northern Michigan University, Marquette.

Conference Planned
A statement of the council's objectives was unanimously approved by the members. The statement stressed the need to work closely with existing agencies in all areas of human resources planning and development to avoid duplication of effort.

The Human Resources Council also agreed to sponsor a second peninsula-wide conference this May. The conference's topic is health services for the Upper Peninsula. The exact conference title, dates and speakers will be announced later.

For the first time last year the council sponsored a region-wide conference, entitled "Education Upswing". Speakers, including Vice President Hubert Humphrey, discussed education problems of the U. P.

The conference was termed so successful by the council that it voted to hold a second yearly conference on another topic pertinent to the area.

Present at one or both of the meetings were Dr. Duane Walters, Marquette; John Erickson, Michigan Department of Public Health; John Backman, alcoholism programs; Keith Clement, Michigan State Library Branch; Mrs. Ruth Frame, Michigan State Library, Lansing; Tom Cook, Northern Michigan University; Douglas Rappley, Michigan Tech; Michael Mahon, State Department of Social Services; Ken Hoag, Michigan Bell Telephone Co.; Ray Gummerson and James Gooch, Michigan State University; Anton Coast, Michigan Employment Securities Commission; Howard Pierce, Frank Mead and Al Halcil, UPCAP; and Dr. Eadie and Charles Folio.

An honorable mention award ($250) was presented to Virgil J. Bardash, a salesman for Mead Papers in Chicago, cited for outstanding work with paper distributors in Wisconsin and Minnesota.

February Auto Sales Go Down

DETROIT (AP)—The nation's auto makers report they sold 21.4 per cent fewer cars in the middle 10 days of this month than during the same period of 1966.

And General Motors, Ford and Chrysler suffered a sales lapse in the Feb. 11-20 period from the first 10 days of the month. Only American Motors Corp. sold more cars in the middle of the month than during the first 10 days.

The industry slump, reported Wednesday, came on the heels of a 20.6 per cent decline for the Feb. 1-10 period, compared with the same span last year.

Preliminary figures showed new car sales totaled 162,688 in the Feb. 11-20 period, a decline of 44,247 cars from the 206,935 put in the hands of customers in the comparable period last year.

Tax Everything Bill Introduced

LANSING (AP) — A bill to permit counties to tax everything from jalopies to jukeboxes and from newspapers to natural gas was introduced in the House Wednesday.

Also placed in the hopper was a bill expressing legislative intent to merge the licensing boards for medical and osteopathic doctors unless the state associations for both contend such a merger would not be in the public interest.

Under the county excise tax package introduced by Rep. George Montgomery, D-Detroit, one-quarter of the revenue would go to school districts, 30 per cent to cities and townships and 45 per cent to the state.

The proposal would permit county governing boards to impose by ordinance a tax of one cent per copy on newspapers, $5 a year on cars, $25 a year on drive-in restaurants and $12 a year on coin-operated devices.

Counties could collect a 10 per cent tax on games such as bowling, golf or baseball, on admissions to places of amusement such as theaters, and on charges or admission to card games or bingo games.

A 5 per cent tax could be imposed on telephone and utility bills and on hotel and motel charges. Natural or manufactured gas would be taxed at one mill per 1,000 cubic feet.

Alderman, Wife Recovering From Near Tragedy

IRON MOUNTAIN — Frank Pipp, former Iron Mountain police chief and present alderman-supervisor of the fifth ward, and his wife are recovering from a near brush with death when they were overcome by carbon monoxide fumes in their homes.

Both were taken to Memorial Hospital by firemen, who responded to a call from Mrs. Pipp. She had found her husband lying on the floor and thought he suffered a heart attack.

When firemen arrived they found Pipp's car running in the garage and both persons unconscious in the house. Firemen said Pipp apparently forgot to shut the engine of the car off when he drove into the garage and fumes seeped into the house.

The Michigan State Medical Society was quick to voice approval of the board-merger bill introduced by Rep. Melvin DeStigter, R-Hudsonville. Dr. C. Allen Payne, president, said the society "is convinced that a proper merger will most definitely be in the public interest."

The state's osteopaths are expected to oppose the merger proposal.

The House delayed action on a measure, favored by Secretary of State James Hare, to insure that no driver has more than one valid license at one time.

An out-of-state driver would be required to give up his old license before getting a Michigan permit, and a person receiving a chauffeur's license would have to turn in his driver's license.

The bill is intended to prevent cases where a driver loses one license through revocation or suspension, but still is able to drive with another license.

Other bills introduced Wednesday would exempt from the state minimum wage law elementary and secondary school teachers and administrators and employees of cooperative extension programs run by high schools, colleges and universities.

Others would require barber shops to close on holidays, extend homestead property tax relief to under-60 widows earning less than $3,000 a year.

Accidents Lead As Death Cause

CHICAGO (AP) — Accidents of all types killed 112,000 persons in the United States last year and remain the nation's fourth leading cause of death.

The National Safety Council, in reporting this fact, said the figure was 5 per cent higher than the 1965 toll of 107,000. The toll pushed the 1966 death rate up to 57.2 fatalities per 100,000 population, compared with the 1965 rate of 55.2. The 1966 figure was the highest since the 1953 rate of 60.1.

The previously reported record traffic toll of 52,500 deaths accounted for 5,500 of the over-all increase of 5,000 deaths. Motor vehicle fatalities accounted for 47 per cent of the total; falls 18 per cent; fires, deaths associated with fires 7 per cent; drownings 6 per cent, and all others 22 per cent. Disabling injuries from accidents number about 10.8 million, including 420,000 that resulted in some permanent impairments. The council estimated economic loss from the 1966 accidents at $19.5 billion.

Death Comes To Suzy Dewey

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — Suzy was losing a big battle, but she didn't cry.

"In the two weeks she has been dying she never cried once," said Mrs. George Dewey, mother of 6-year-old Suzy Dewey.

These two weeks ended Wednesday as Suzy lost an 18-month fight against leukemia, a fight that brought her into the hearts of thousands of strangers across the nation.

Cards, letters and gifts, including one from entertainer Frank Sinatra, poured into Suzy's home.

A cruel prankster nearly brought heartache to the child with so little time to live.

Industry Offered Technical Aid

Technical information that commerce and industry would find most helpful is available to them through the Technical Services Act of 1965, which is now being implemented in Michigan, David Foxson, Lansing, industrial representative of the Office of Economic Expansion, Michigan Department of Commerce, said in Escanaba Wednesday night.

Foxson spoke to a public meeting of Upper Peninsula professional engineers and others at an Engineers' Week banquet at the House of Ludington.

The meeting was sponsored by the Douglass Houghton Chapter, Michigan Society of Professional Engineers, of which Gary Barton of Gladstone Rte. 1 is president; Dr. Richard Rinehart of Escanaba is vice president; and Rodger T. Murray, Escanaba, is secretary.

There has been tremendous technological development in this country and around the world since the 1940's, but the problem is to make this technical information readily available to business, to commerce and industry, Foxson said.

Congress in September, 1965, passed the Technical Services Act and set up a fund of money which is matched by public or private funds dollar for dollar in the state programs.

Foxson said the program provides for: 1 - Establishing information centers; 2 - Indexing expertise and cataloging the available talent; and 3 - Conducting workshops, seminars and demonstration projects.

In Michigan the Office of Economic Expansion is designated the agency to administer the program. Contracts have been consummated with state-supported colleges and universities (11 in Michigan, including Northern Michigan University at Marquette and Michigan Tech at Houghton) for their participation in the technological information effort.

Encourage Inquiry Each of the schools has a technical services director for the program. At Northern Michigan University it is William Herron and at Michigan Tech it is Leo Lucchesi.

Foxson said that hopefully the technical services directors will be employed fulltime as the programs are developed. Basically the director is responsible for indexing the talent at his school and the capabilities of the school in serving the technological needs of industry in the school's area.

"We are not seeking to set up or to compete with private consulting services," said Foxson. "By arousing the interest of industry in the technological information available to them, we should bring to private consultants more business than they can handle. We are not trying to take over anyone's consulting business," he emphasized.

World Sources The future of the technology information service appears to be nearly limitless in its possibilities, Foxson continued.

The hope is that this year will see the completion of a teletype system of communication, linking the state office and the schools, including Wayne State University which is involved in follow-through with information at the national and international level.

Beginning steps, however, are the seminars that will be offered by the participating colleges and universities. In the Upper Peninsula the representatives of business, industry and commerce who are interested in the program are invited to contact technical services directors William Herron at Northern Michigan University and Leo Lucchesi at Michigan Tech.

The Cat's Out

"Fiscal reform" is called the greatest need of Michigan in the current session of the Legislature.

Republicans and Democrats are rather generally agreed on the need for it, but they differ, as parties and as individuals as to the form it should take.

Last weekend's convention of Michigan Democrats in Detroit indicated the way that the wind may blow with the Democrats on fiscal reform, but we are concerned here with what the Democratic legislators will do and they don't always agree with the party policies. Zolton Ferency, for instance, who was elected to a third two-year term as state chairman, has been a stout fella for fiscal reform but his Democratic party cohorts in the Legislature scuttled it.

The Democrats, if the Legislators follow the party line, are not going to support Gov. George Romney's fiscal reform package calling for a 2.5 per cent flat rate income tax. They said at Detroit that fiscal reform must be based on a graduated income tax, like the federal levy which escalates its rate as the taxpayer's income increases.

The present state constitution prohibits a graduated rate income tax, authorizes only a flat rate income tax under which all taxpayers would pay the same rate. To insist upon a graduated tax means only defeat for fiscal reform under the state's present constitutional law. Such reform could come only with the amendment of the constitution.

The Democrats instructed their State Central Committee to initiate a move to amend the state constitution by petition to permit a graduated income tax when the committee considers the time ripe. The initiative petition campaign would cost an estimated $100,000 so it isn't to be undertaken lightly and an even greater obstacle than the cost is the inclination of Michigan voters to vote "No" on a graduated income tax, which killed the effort to write permission for one into the new constitution in 1963.

The Democrats have a division of opinion about the income tax within their own ranks, as do the Republicans. Some Republicans say that a 2.5 per cent income tax won't be enough to take care of Michigan's money needs; that it would add enough income to run the state only until August of 1968 and then the red ink would flow again.

This is the skirmishing period of the war of the income tax at Lansing. Some Democratic legislators are still questioning the need for a state income tax and some Republican legislators haven't been won to the Romney plan.

The facts of fiscal life, however, are much better known to the legislators than they are to the public and this is really a period of public education on the income tax issue. Later there will be soundings to determine what the public will support in the way of new taxes and what can be enacted with least anger against legislators.

The primer on tax education includes these basic lessons:

1. "Fiscal reform" as used in Michigan is a euphemism.

2. A euphemism is a mild name for something disagreeable. In this case it is a less offensive name for an income tax.

3. The Democrats say that a flat rate income tax is regressive. A regressive tax is one in which the tax rate decreases as the amount of income increases. Actually the tax is not regressive — larger incomes would pay proportionately more — but it is not progressive in the sense that a graduated rate income tax is. And a flat rate income tax is not inequitable like a sales tax, which taxes the poor disproportionately because so much of their income is expended on the needs of life and subject to the tax.

4. The state government has built-in cost increases like the increased number of school children under the state aid program, etc., which make the state's present tax income inadequate for the year coming up and those to follow.

5. The decision for Michigan will not be: Do we want an income tax?

Rather it will be one of these three:

A. Do we want to reduce state services to match state income?

B. Do we want to enact a flat rate income tax to increase income so it covers state services?

C. Do we want to do nothing and incur a state deficit? Gov. Romney has said he will not sign any expenditure bill for which there has been no tax provision. The new constitution permits only temporary borrowing and only up to 15 per cent of the undedicated state revenues of the preceding fiscal year, which would be about $70 million. And it must be repaid not later than the end of the fiscal year in which it is borrowed.

When these hard facts of Michigan's fiscal position are understood there may be a new outlook on the income tax; not a happier one perhaps, but a more realistic one. An income tax is being proposed not because anyone wants it but because somebody must come up with more money for the state government or we must take over locally more of the services it has been performing.

Medicare Problem Is Nursing Beds

By PHIL BROWN

LANSING (AP) — Medicare in Michigan still has to cure one big pain in the neck—waiting. After six months of federal medicare care to the aged, hospitals report they are waiting for Uncle Sam to pay $21 million in bills and some are borrowing money to pay their nurses in the meantime.

Elderly persons are waiting for beds to open up in eligible nursing homes so they can receive the care which Uncle Sam promised to provide.

Harried administrators are waiting for the day when every one figures out all the paperwork.

Yet many persons are optimistic enough to say, "Wait — things will improve."

Study Neglected

Many of these same persons with the federal government had waited to study potential problems before plunging into the full — scale "Title 18" program, which provides health insurance to persons over 65.

While hospitals and nursing homes still are struggling with Title 18 problems, Title 19 (medicaid) is starting to take over payments for the "medically indigent" — the government term for persons who can't afford to pay their medical bills and still buy what the government considers life's other necessities.

About 732,000 Michigan residents are eligible for medicare hospital coverage, and about 680,000 — or 93 per cent — have elected to pay an extra fee for insurance to help pay doctor bills.

Thousands Of Errors

Medicare's financial intermeddler, Blue Cross, said in six months it received about 90,000 outpatient hospital bills, returned about 15,000 to hospitals because of errors and paid 70,000 totaling $35.3 million — about $305 a bill. The patient pays the first $40 of his hospital bill and the first $50 of his doctor bills.

Blue Cross reported receiving 20,000 outpatient bills and paying out $24,700 — an average of just $1.20 because the patients paid most of the costs under deductible provisions.

The Michigan Hospital Association estimates that hospitals across the state have had to boost their annual payrolls by a total of $2 million to hire clerks to handle the new paperwork.

More bothersome to the hospitals, the association said, is the backlog of $21.15 million in unpaid medicare bills.

Hospitals Borrow

"In a number of cases, hospitals have had to borrow money at high current interest rates in order to meet payrolls and other expenses," said Allan Barth, the association's executive director.

"Even though the entire financial problem cannot be attributed to medicare, medicare payment bottlenecks have contributed to the hospitals' fiscal difficulties," he said.

The association's figures are based on a sampling from 228 hospitals in Michigan.

The hospitals are confident Uncle Sam will pay up eventually, but without cash on hand, they find it difficult to buy new equipment.

"I think we can learn to live with it," said James M. Dwyer, assistant administrator of Saginaw Osteopathic Hospital. "But it is going to make it difficult to finance any capital improvements because it limits our working capital."

Use Own Funds

In some cases, Blue Cross has advanced some of its own funds to hospitals waiting to collect medicare bills.

"We view this as a temporary measure," said Dale Nouse, a Blue Cross spokesman. "We may keep it up six months or a year until hospitals feel reassured."

The number of over — 65 patients in Michigan hospitals has increased, but not at all hospitals.

P. K. Neumann, director of Sparrow Hospital in Lansing, said the high medicare standards have caused an "artificial" shortage of the increase bed shortage in nursing homes.

might be the result of an expanding elderly citizen population, more conscious of health needs.

"Between Blue Cross and government programs I think we were doing a good job already (before medicare)," he said. "This is mainly just shifting the method of payment."

No Place To Go

"The patient's staying twice as long forces us into a waiting list," said Bob D. Dann, administrator of Hackley Hospital in Muskegon.

Joseph Laska, associate administrator of St. Francis Hospital in Escanaba, said, "Our biggest problem in medicare is the medical patient who is ready to go home from the hospital and who has no place to go. Many are 80 or more and living alone and there are no nursing homes in Delta County for them to go to. The nursing homes are filled."

To be eligible for medicare nursing home benefits, a patient must be in a home that has passed a rigid medicare inspection.

Of more than 400 nursing homes in the state, only about 80, with about 8,000 beds, have been approved so far, said Lynn Kellogg, deputy director of Michigan's Department of Social Welfare.

Wait Clarification

Before going ahead with much expansion or renovation work, many nursing homes are waiting to obtain a clearer picture of how much they will receive for caring for medicare and medicaid patients, said Carl Tuggle of the Michigan Nursing Home Association.

"There will be more beds available as private industry can see it will make a reasonable profit," Tuggle said. But, he added, a manager hesitates to borrow money to add more beds before he knows what type of return he will receive.

For medicare patients, nursing homes are paid their costs plus a small percentage, but this does not include anything toward paying the principal on a mortgage, said Tuggle.

The formula for paying medicare bills will be announced probably in April, Kellogg said, and it will take into account reasonable costs "without going to an unlimited amount on actual costs."

Need Ceiling

Tuggle said the nursing homes do not want the "cost — plus" formula and, as tax payers, also feel a ceiling should be put in the medicare reimbursement formula.

With cost — plus, Tuggle said, it's a case of "the more I spend, the more I make."

The department will check later on how the formula is working. "To make sure the homes are not penalized but also that charges are not unjustly high," Kellogg said.

"We know that many of the nursing homes are doing all right — that they're not in bankruptcy," he said.

The reason many nursing homes are waiting to find out the medicare formula is that to be eligible for medicare payments after Jan. 1, 1968, they will have to meet all medicare standards, which could involve added costs for some.

Shouldn't Be Tied

The American Nursing Home Association hopes to change this ruling. It feels Congress never intended that medicare should be tied to medicare, Tuggle said.

For some patients, Kellogg agreed, the type of equipment and staff required by medicare standards are not needed.

His department, after reviewing evidence, also may suggest to Congress that it relax standards, he said.

Government, he said, should provide for a full range of services — with intensive care for those who need it and lesser degrees of care, at lower costs, for those who do not.

One Muskegon hospital official said the high medicare standards have caused an "artificial" shortage of the increase bed shortage in nursing homes.

Mrs. Charles Laxton, operator of a Lansing nursing home which just closed, said while medicare was intended to improve standards, it has worked in reverse in some cases.

Unlicensed Homes

"When we closed Fairview, some (patients) had to go to unlicensed homes because of the shortage of facilities. This definitely downgraded their care," she said.

Mrs. Laxton and her husband said the home went out of business because it no longer could cope with a list of city, county, state and federal government regulations.

Kellogg said the nursing homes that are closing mainly are small ones and that while the number of homes is decreasing, the number of beds is increasing.

But, he added, "people could be shortchanged in some areas. We don't want to be working against ourselves."

The state, he added, should encourage any nursing home which has the potential to qualify for medicare to apply for eligibility.

County Control

Meanwhile, he said, the department is trying to set up a plan in which each county will keep track of all nursing home openings and help place elderly persons leaving hospitals.

"I think you'll find hospitals won't be so much over a barrel as this shakes down, because we hope we'll know every available bed," said Kellogg.

In some cases, he said, hospitals are setting a maximum of 48 hours for a patient to go on receiving medicare-paid hospital care after the medicare utilization committee decides he is ready to leave the hospital.

The state intends to adopt the same policy for medicaid, he added.

More experience appears to be the answer to paperwork problems, hospital administrators and officials say.

20 Minutes Each

Interviewers at university hospital at Ann Arbor said they spend an average of 20 minutes explaining the bill to each medicare patient.

Workers at the Lansing social security office reported they have received numerous phone calls from elderly persons who don't understand medicare "or just don't read their book."

"Quite a number — I was surprised — don't know about the deductible part," one worker said. "They think it's a dirty gyp because they get a bill for $40."

Kellogg said it has been suggested that the $40-deductible provision be removed because its nuisance offsets the money it saves.

"The program is so new, with so many people involved, a little deviation from good performance sticks out," said Nouse. "By and large it is working very well."

All Optimists

"I think everyone is very optimistic. We're training people working out bugs and day by day clearing up some of them," he said.

Neumann agreed. "I think most of the problems we've incurred have been the administrative ones of starting a big, complicated program affecting millions of people. I think they will work out."

"We hope the (nursing home) organization will go ahead with plans to develop additional bed space," Kellogg said. "And we hope hospitals will develop chronic disease wards (sort of a nursing home wing)."

The homes that are not qualified for medicare now lack such things as a sound building structure, adequate staff and access to dietitians and other specialists, he said.

Any new facilities, Tuggle said, will be built with medicare standards in mind and should have no problem qualifying. "The odds are with us," he said.

Today's hand illustrates a principle of play that was almost unknown as late as 25 years ago.

This hand was played by Oswald Jacoby at New York's Cavendish Club in 1941. He won the diamond lead and played four rounds of clubs.

Then he cashed the ace of spades, went over to dummy with a heart and finessed successfully against East's queen.

His partner, one of the great players of all time, was mightily pleased with the result and asked, "How did you figure out that spade play?"

The answer to the question is that the play was correct. If Jacoby had missed Qxxx in spades instead of QJxx, the correct play would have been to try to drop the queen, but this hand illustrates the principle of restricted choice. When West played the jack, it meant that he had started with either the singleton jack or a doubleton queen-jack. The odds would be slightly in favor of the latter as a matter of plain probability. Specifically, when you miss four of a suit the chance that a specific opponent will hold a specific singleton is .062; the chance that he holds a specific doubleton is .0668.

However, we have to go into inverse or compound probability here. If West held the singleton jack, he would have to play it; if he held the doubleton queen-jack, he would have a choice and would be just as likely to play one as the other. At least, a good player will falcater about half the time in this situation, hence the .068 chance of doubleton QJ is cut in half and becomes .034, so that the actual odds in favor of the finesse are 82 to 34, or almost two to one.

Of course, if you were playing against a man who always falcates, you would have a sure thing finesse. He would not play the jack from queen-jack under any circumstances. There may be such players somewhere but we have never found one.

Choice Of Physician Is A Personal Right

Dear Ann Landers: My brother's wife is expecting her first baby. Clara is young (21), very immature and terribly prudish as you will learn when I tell you the problem.

There are four girls in our family and we all have gone to the same obstetrician. Clara has decided to go to a woman physician who doesn't have nearly the reputation that our O.B. has. We are sure Clara chose this O.B. because she is bashful about going to a male doctor. Isn't this the dumbest thing yet? Please say so in your own inimitable style. I love it when you tell people off.

— LAKE FORREST

Dear Lake: I'm glad you love it because you're next, Kiddo. If Clara wants to go to a plumber, what business is it of yours? It sounds as if this decision is your sister-in-law's Declaration of Independence—and hooray for her. Why don't you girls find another project to keep you busy this spring?

Dear Ann Landers: When we married, my husband made it plain that making the living was his job and taking care of the home and raising the children was my job.

He agreed that I could talk to him about special problems provided I spoke from written notes. (He hates rambling.) I soon learned that such conversations were useless because he always ended up calling me stupid.

The problem is that after keeping my feelings bottled up for 15 years, I finally confided in a friend. It was like an alcoholic taking one drink. I couldn't control myself. Once I had "uncorked the bottle" I couldn't stop blabbing to one person and then another.

Now I am so filled with guilt and shame that I can't look anyone in the eye including my husband.

What can I do about this mess I have made of my life? — ME

Dear You: I hope every frustrated and unhappy wife who blabs to friends will recognize herself in your letter. The practice is self-defeating and destructive.

I am a firm believer in unloading tensions by talking them out, but the selection of the ear of paramount importance. The best listener is a professional who can be objective and offer guidance.

Romney Urges Tithe Of Time

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — Gov. George Romney of Michigan, on a political sortie through his boyhood homeland, has called for a national "tithe of time" to help solve this nation's ills.

In a speech prepared for delivery at a Republican luncheon in Idaho Falls he said "four hours—10 per cent of a 40 hour week—spent in well-conceived voluntary effort at the local level could reshape America faster than federal programs ever will."

Titling usually refers to the voluntary contribution of one-tenth of one's income to a church.

Romney, a Mormon who believes in tithing—money or time—said a recent national survey showed that more than 61 per cent of adult Americans said they would give four hours a week to productive citizen service.

He chose the heartland of his family and church to tackle a religious issue that without question will repeat itself if he does make a race for the presidency. His Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints refuses the priesthood—open to all white males over 12—to Negroes.

"If my church prevented me from working to eliminate social injustice and racial discrimination—as I have for 25 years—I would not belong to it," Romney told the Salt Lake City Ministerial Association, "but that's not the case."

He stressed his own record on civil rights.

Justices Of Peace Fight Court Reform

LANSING — Advocates of "professionalism" in the lower courts are getting ready for battle against advocates of the current justice of the peace system after a reorganization bill prepared by a committee of experts was introduced in the Legislature.

The bill would establish a new District Court system and eliminate all justice of the peace, Municipal, Recorder's, Traffic and Common Pleas courts and Circuit Court commissioners.

The District Courts would all be courts of record, meaning that, under the constitution, district court judges would have to be attorneys admitted to the Michigan Bar.

There is no such requirement for justices of the peace.

Justices of the peace, many of whom are not lawyers, are backing a lower court reorganization plan which will allow nonlawyers to be eligible for positions on the bench in the new lower court system.

For all practical purposes, the Legislature must act on a reorganization plan this year. The new constitution gave the lawmakers until Jan. 1, 1969, to establish a new system.

On that date the justice of the peace and Circuit Court commissioners will be automatically abolished.

Delaying action until 1968 would not leave time for the establishment procedures and holding of elections.

Compromise will be necessary to get any bill through because of a constitutional requirement that any reorganization legislation pass by a two-thirds majority, said Rep. J. Bob Traxler (D-Bay City) and assistant minority leader, the bill's chief sponsor in the House.

"I believe we can keep the requirement that all the judges be attorneys," he said. "But we will have to compromise in other areas."

"One advantage we have is that the justices of the peace know that, even if no bill is passed by Jan. 1, 1969, they won't have any office to hold any longer."

Principal features of the plan recommended by the special committee composed of lawyers, judges, law school professors, legislators and laymen who have been studying the problem since late 1965 include:

- A unified state court system administered by the Supreme Court with a lower court system providing one court for about each 35,000 population. (Delta County has 34,000 population.)

- Election of judges to the District Court on a nonpartisan ballot for six, eight or 10-year terms.

- Basic state salaries of $20,000 for the judges, plus a supplement from the county not to exceed two-thirds of the county maximum supplement for circuit judges. Currently this would mean a top possible salary of $24,000 a year.

- District Court civil jurisdiction would be exclusive in cases involving up to $1,000 and concurrent with the Circuit Court in suits involving claims of $1,000 to $5,000. Summary proceedings in land contract foreclosures and rent cases would be in District Court.

- District Court criminal jurisdiction over misdemeanors where the penalty does not exceed $500 or 90 days in jail, and all local ordinance violations.

- An informal conciliation division for cases involving $500 or less.

- Establishment of traffic bureaus to collect uncontested traffic tickets.

- Commissioners to be appointed by the court who can perform administrative functions, sign warrants, set bail and accept bonds when authorized on an individual basis.

- Proceeds from fines levied under state laws to go to the state, while those from fines levied under municipal ordinances would be apportioned between the community and the state on a formula yet to be determined.

Traxler said that making enough changes in the complicated reorganization plan to attract the necessary two-thirds majority could prove so difficult that a special session of the Legislature devoted strictly to the problem might have to be called in the fall.

AP Stores To Drop Stamps

A&P Food Stores will discontinue distribution of Plaid trading stamps in 15 Michigan stores operated by the Milwaukee Unit, effective at the close of business Saturday, Feb. 25, according to O. Philip Nyquist, of Chicago, president of the company's Middle Western Division.

"In view of the fact that trading stamps are not now offered to customers in the balance of our Milwaukee Unit stores, we have concluded that it will be in the best interest of our customers that the unit be stamp-free," he explained. "The decisions to consolidate and to eliminate stamps have been made in the interest of greater efficiency and operational saving—savings which, in the A&P tradition, will be shared with our customers," Nyquist said.

Company officials said this stamp plan termination applies only to the Milwaukee Unit. Approximately half of the 4,585 A&P stores in the nation still offer Plaid trading stamps.

"Everything is being done so that customers holding stamps may redeem them at their convenience," Nyquist said. "Mail box home delivery service is provided in all stores so customers may select merchandise and have it delivered to their homes."

E. F. MacDonald Stamp Co., of Dayton, O., owners of Plaid stamps, will assist A&P customers to complete their requirements for premiums by giving them the opportunity to pay cash in place of the missing stamps at the rate of 25 cents per 100 stamps.

U.P. Still Free Of Leaf Beetles

The cereal leaf beetle, discovered in Berrien County, Michigan in the summer of 1962, is considered by many to be the most potentially dangerous insect pest of small grains ever introduced into this country, says M. E. Turner of the USDA's Plant Pest Control Division. The insect is now present in all but 9 counties of the Lower Peninsula but no infestation has been discovered in the Upper Peninsula. The beetle quarantine includes the entire Lower Peninsula.

"Whether I will be able to function again as chairman of our reunions is for the Gods to decide. One thing certain, I will be faced with a severe challenge. But being a fighter, I accept the challenge and hope to overcome my afflictions."

Sault Considering Marine Museum

Sault Ste. Marie, aware of its rich historical background, is considering a $2,400,000 bond issue to preserve historical sites.

One suggested project is to acquire the last of the whale-back steamers, the John Ericsson, for a marine museum.

Upper Lakes Shipping, Ltd., owners of the Ericsson, had given her to Hamilton Ontario, for that purpose and she moored there. But the city fathers took another long look at the high cost of maintaining her as a marine museum and declined with thanks.

So some day she may be on display at the Soo.

AN IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT FROM A&P

Effective with the close of business Saturday, February 25th, fifteen A&P stores in Michigan will discontinue the distribution of the MacDonald Stamp Company's Plaid trading stamps.

WHY?

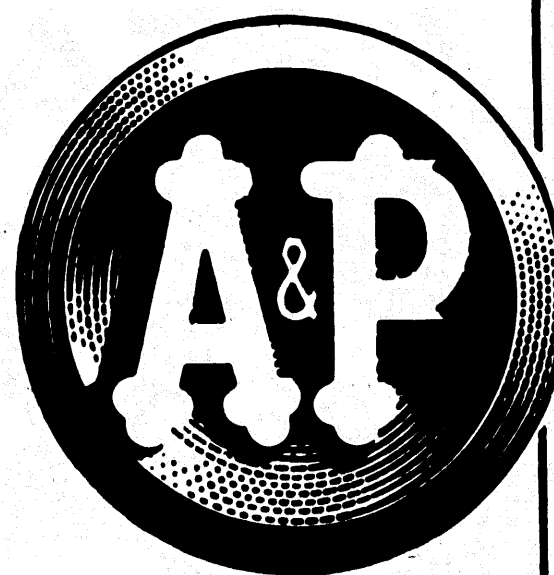

For two reasons:

1. In view of the fact that trading stamps are not now offered in most of our Milwaukee Unit stores, we have concluded that it will be in the best interest of our customers that the Unit be stamp free.
2. When stamps were introduced in the spring of 1962, the Milwaukee Unit had reason to believe that folks in this territory would respond to the introduction with an enthusiasm that would permit the distribution of stamps without dislocating either its business or A&P's century-old tradition of offering to its customers the most good food for the least amount of money. The degree of response has not been that enthusiastic.

WHAT ABOUT THE STAMPS YOU HAVE?

For your convenience, any Plaid Stamps in your possession may be redeemed as follows: (Complete details are posted in your A&P Store)

1. Customers now holding stamps may redeem them at their convenience by continuing to use the mail box home delivery service now provided in all affected A&P stores.
2. If you need additional stamps to complete your requirements for premiums, the E. F. MacDonald Stamp Company will allow you to make up the difference in cash at the rate of 25c per 100 Plaid Stamps needed, plus Michigan Sales Tax. Example: If you have 18½ filled books and the catalog item you wish calls for 20 books, merely fill out the Plaid Stamp Cash Purchase Request form available from your A&P Store manager. Include your check or money order in the amount of $4.50 in lieu of the missing 1½ books, plus Michigan Sales Tax on 20 books. Thereafter follow the usual Mail Box Home Delivery procedure.

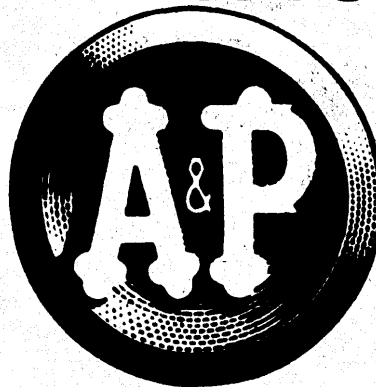

WHAT NOW AT A&P?

We can't give you all the details just yet but exciting things are about to happen at your A&P. We know why folks like you made A&P America's foremost food retailer. We know what you like most. We invite one and all to shop A&P starting Tuesday, February 28th.

We think you'll put your stamp of approval on the exciting new look at A&P.

vision has made america great

Men of vision and dedicated people have made America the industrial, manufacturing, and retailing leader of the world.

Take our founder as an example.

More than a century ago, he envisioned a new concept of efficient, low-cost mass food distribution. This concept set the stage for the development of today's modern A&P and for today's entire food retailing industry.

Similar vision characterizes the current management of A&P:

Men who recognize the cost-saving potential of computerized warehousing and ordering.

Men who are applying practical automation to manufacturing facilities.

Men who are relocating distribution centers to take advantage of modern transportation and roads.

Men who are constantly on the lookout for better, more efficient methods of food handling.

Men who are, as always, dedicated to the basic concept of our founder: TO BRING THE MOST GOOD FOOD, TO THE MOST PEOPLE, FOR THE LEAST AMOUNT OF MONEY.

Masons-K Of C Plan Joint Civil Action Program

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Officials of the Masons and the Roman Catholic Knights of Columbus have agreed to form joint civil programs on a broad basis.

In making the announcement, officials of the two organizations said that the "fraternal" spirit was an outgrowth of the Vatican Ecumenical Council, which encouraged subsequent discussion and cooperation among many Protestant, Catholic and Jewish groups.

Councils of the Knights and lodges of the predominantly Protestant Masons have cooperated on the local level in recent years for such causes as blood drives and fund-raising campaigns to civic projects.

But the pledge of cooperation to form widespread programs in the "moral, civic and social action fields," was described by the two organizations in a statement as "the first time that the highest officials met to explore avenues of cooperation."

The statement said it was agreed "that the ideal of a belief in the brotherhood of man under the fatherhood of God, which both fraternities embrace and support, could serve as a social and moral therapy for the ills of modern society."

The statement was released here by George A. Newbury of Buffalo, N.Y., sovereign grand commander of the 500,000 Masons in 15 Northeast and Middle Atlantic states, and John W. McDevitt of New Haven, supreme knight of the Knights of Columbus.

McDevitt represents all 1.2-million members of the Knights of Columbus in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Puerto Rico and the Philippines.

There are four million Masons in the United States, but Masonic officials noted that there was no one national leader of the organization. Policy decisions, therefore, are made by sectional leaders.

Masonic officials said they expected other sectional leaders to join in the agreement reached by Newbury and McDevitt at a private meeting in New York City Jan. 19-20.

Democrat Seeks To Bar Romney Ballot Picture

LANSING (AP) — One Democratic legislator has introduced a bill designed to do what another lawmaker failed to do last fall — get Gov. George Romney's picture off the Republican ballot.

A measure introduced in the house Wednesday by Rep. Alfred Sheridan, D-Taylor, would forbid a political party to use the picture of any living person in its ballot vignette.

State Sen. Edward Robinson, D-Deerborn, went to court before last November's election claiming that since Romney was a candidate, his picture on the ballot amounted to illegally soliciting votes in a polling place.

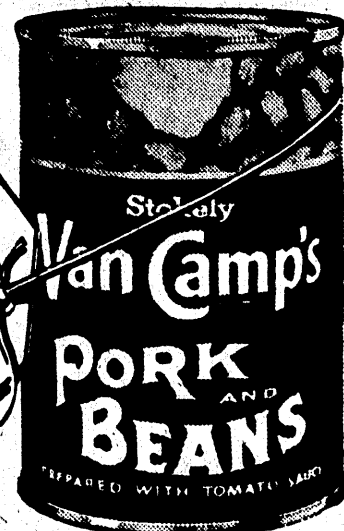

The Wayne County Circuit Court and the State Court of Appeals disagreed.

Candidates for Queen are Joann Marshall, Suzanne Nelson, Sharon McNair, Michelle Krout, Diane Sjoquist, Diane Ottensman, Beverly Martin and Linda Johnson.

Balloting on popularity has been completed at the high school and the girls were judged on poise and personality this afternoon by Mrs. Grant Hess.

Crowning of the Queen is expected to be Friday. The Queen and two attendants selected will rein over the Winter Carnival activities this weekend.

The program of races planned tonight includes events for boys and girls in all age groups. There will also be adult competition for best couple skating to music and men's and women's open races in the 18-event program.

Downhill ski races begin at 1:30 p. m. Saturday at the Ski Park with competition planned for both boys and girls in the 10-and-under, 11 to 13, and 14 to 18 year age groups.

Dzendzel Fights Michigan Time

LANING (AP) — A bill to exempt Michigan from observing Daylight Savings Time moved one step closer to passage in the Senate Wednesday, but ran into opposition from the Senate minority leader.

The measure, sponsored by Sen. Basil Brown, D-Highland Park, would remove Michigan from the provisions of the Federal Uniform Time Act which would require adoption of Daylight Savings Time during summer months.

Minority leader Raymond Dzendzel, D-Detroit, opposed the bill on the grounds that the federal act would provide one more hour of daylight for recreation and would encourage more tourist travel.

Passage of the bill to exempt Michigan would put the state on an entirely different time schedule from surrounding states and would result in confusion in the transportation industry, Dzendzel said.

An extra hour of daylight would help reduce traffic and industrial accidents, the Detroit senator said.

The bill was supported by the chairman of the Senate State Affairs Committee, Thomas Schweigert, R-Petoskey.

Schweigert said the state already is on Daylight Savings Time the year around since the state's geographic position would normally place it in the Central Time Zone.

However, he said, the legislature in 1945 voted to place the state on Eastern Standard Time, providing for an extra hour of daylight.

"Daylight saving time would compound an error which already exists," Schweigert said.

He said recent hearings on the bill indicate some merchants favor daylight saving time because it allows them and their employees an extra hour for recreation.

At the same time, he said, parents oppose the time change because it would mean their children would be leaving for school during hours of darkness.

Rep. Powell To Keep His Seat

WASHINGTON (AP) — Members of the select House committee on Adam Clayton Powell meet today to dot "T's" and cross "T's" in their report recommending seating, censure and setbacks for the controversial Harlem congressman.

Although at least one member confided he would be a bit uneasy until all nine signatures are affixed to the committee's report, agreement was reached late Wednesday on the basic accord to be presented today to the House for action, probably next Tuesday or Wednesday.

Under the proposal, Powell, who was kept from membership Jan. 10 pending this investigation, would receive his seat along with a stiff censure, loss of seniority and a requirement he repay from his salary government funds he allegedly converted to his own use.

This amount has been estimated at about $35,000, including salary illegally ticketed for his estranged wife and personal plane trips charged to congressional credit cards. It would represent more than half of the $80,000 salary he is to draw over the two years of the 90th Congress.

Rep. Claude D. Pepper, D-Fla., the committee's chief exponent of expulsion rather than seating with punishment for Powell, said Wednesday he planned to sign the committee's report, and Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., confirmed the recommendation would be unanimous with no dissenting views.

Milliken Asks Emergency Feed For U.P. Counties

LANING (AP) — Lt. Gov. William Milliken asked Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman Wednesday to declare Alger, Marquette and Chippewa counties as emergency feed areas.

Approval of the request would allow livestock owners in the counties to buy government-owned feed grains if they do not have sufficient feed for livestock.

The counties reported serious feed shortages due to severe drought last summer. Freeman designated 13 counties in the northern Lower Peninsula as emergency feed areas last December for similar reasons.

Reuther Orders Fisher Strikers Return To Jobs

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Under orders to put down rebellion, leaders of a striking Ohio union are attempting to lead their United Auto Workers back to work immediately and end chain-reaction shutdowns that have idled more than half of General Motors' 240,000 auto workers.

The orders came from UAW President Walter P. Reuther and his 26-member executive board in a showdown meeting at Detroit Wednesday night. Robert Hall, president of Mansfield Local 549, promised to follow the orders.

Hall called a membership meeting and UAW executives said they anticipated an end to the seven-day wildcat walkout by the beginning of the afternoon shift.

With 133,500 idled in 57 plants across the country, GM said it would get factories back in production as quickly as possible.

But the company added, "Everything depends on the flow of parts from Mansfield," where the struck Fisher Body division plants makes body components for 90 per cent of GM's cars.

Reuther and his board threatened to take over Local 549, whose 2,700 members in the key supplier plant refused telegraphed orders Tuesday to end the strike which now spans eight days.

The UAW president called the strike illegal and said it violated both the UAW-GM contract and the UAW constitution.

UAW Vice President Leonard Woodcock pointed out that the strike came at a time when lagging sales have left all auto makers with huge inventories and it only would pinch fellow unionists financially.

When other GM plants resume operations will depend upon how quickly the Mansfield plant is going full speed again.

Underlying the strike were complaints of Mansfield union members about what they termed farming out of work which should have been assigned to them.

Political Patti Is New Demo Party Image

DETROIT (P)—Perky Patti Knox personifies what she calls the "new young image" of the Democratic state party.

"But I'm the tired old image you ever saw," said the 41-year-old Democratic vice chairman of Michigan.

Delegates to the party convention in Grand Rapids last weekend elected Mrs. Knox to the post on the third ballot, ousting 14-year veteran Adelaide Hart. The state chairman is Zolton Ferency.

"It was only a weekend, but it felt like a two-month campaign," Mrs. Knox said. "Whenever I could steal a few minutes, I'd race back to my hotel room and stick my feet in cold water."

"I shook hands so much I did it in my sleep," she said, "and I've smiled a n t i l I m y face feels frozen."

But Mrs. Knox, wife of Detroit Housing Director Robert Knox, is a veteran campaigner. Her political work began in 1948 when former Gov. G. Mennen Williams set his bowtie on the governor's seat.

"I was asked to give a coffee for Nancy Williams," Mrs. Knox said, "and I've been involved ever since."

The new vice chairman is on good terms with her predecessor. "She, Miss Hart, had assured me several times that she wouldn't reconsider her decision not to run."

"I wouldn't have run against her if I had known in time," Mrs. Knox said. She discovered Miss Hart's change of mind about running for the vice chairmanship just 10 minutes before the nominations were made.

"People had worked too hard for me by that time for me to back out," Mrs. Knox said. "Win or lose, I had to go ahead."

NEW YORK STATE Supreme Court Justice Michael Kern, left, dismissed the indictment against Jose Saurez, 22, a factory worker who admitted slaying his wife and five small children. The dismissed case came about because Saurez was not informed of his rights as outlined in an historic U. S. Supreme Court decision last year. Saurez' confession was the only available evidence against him. (AP Wirephoto)

NFO Dairymen Selling Cows

FLINT (AP) — In a protest against what they feel are inadequate milk prices, members of the National Farmers Organization sent about 525 dairy cows to become steaks and hamburgers Tuesday.

In a similar move, designed both to call attention to their problems and to reduce the supply of farm produce, NFO members sold about 200 producing sows for slaughter last Wednesday at Pewamo.

Both demonstrations were part of a nationwide campaign by the NFO, which aims to bargain for contracts guaranteeing farmers a certain price for their goods.

NFO leaders complain that while a downtown merchant sets a price and says, "Take it or leave it," they have to go to market with their products and ask, "What will you give me?"

Earlier Tuesday, more than 100 NFL members demonstrated outside the McDonald Co-operative Dairy Co. in Flint to call attention to efforts to organize a nationwide milk price bargaining unit.

Michigan NFO members have asked both McDonald Co-operative and the Michigan Milk Producers Association to join them in organizing such a unit. McDonald officials have talked to NFO members, but at this point "We can't tie in with them—they have no plant, no program."

Charles Watson, general manager of Vogt Packing Co. in Flint, estimated 525 dairy cows were sold to his firm as part of the demonstration.

Mrs. Jimmie Sebesty, a spokesman for the Berrien County NFO, said between 50 and 75 farmers took cattle to a sale in South Bend, Ind.

Johnson Keeps Up On News Queries

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson keeps tabs on what top federal officials tell newsmen.

Press secretary George Christian explained that White House assistants tell him daily about significant press contacts, and outside officials "send in such information as they think I may need."

When Christian believes the information is pertinent or informative, he sends Johnson a memo, he said.

Christian said the system is a good idea, that it keeps him informed about what reporters are asking and that he inherited it from predecessor Bill D. Moyers.

Births In State Dip 209 In 1966

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's baby production continues on the decline, reports the State Health Department.

Tentative figures for 1966 show 160,815 births during the year, 290 fewer than in 1965.

Late reports, however, could bring the total somewhat higher.

The Health Department said Michigan births have shown a steady drop since a high of 207,277 births was recorded in 1957.

Every month in 1966 except February saw a decline in births from the similar month in 1965. There were four more February births in 1966 than the total of 22,298 for the same month the previous year.

The figures are gathered from birth certificates filed with the State Health Department.

Heggbloom Heads Local Delegates For Demo Meet

The Democratic convention in Grand Rapids had its resolutions committee in session from 9 p.m. Saturday until 7 a.m., the following morning, local delegates report. The Schoolcraft group elected U. S. A. Heggbloom, chairman, Duane MacGregor, of Gulliver, vice chairman, William Cowman, secretary and Leonard Shay of Germfak, treasurer.

The delegation and those of the other 21 counties in the 11th Congressional district caucused on issues and candidates at 5 p.m. Saturday. By party regulations, the Democratic nominee for Congress convenes and presides at the convention until a permanent chairman is elected by caucus, so Raymond Clevenger, former Congressman presided. He was elected chairman of the 11th district delegation also.

U. S. A. Heggbloom was nominated to the resolutions committee by Leonard H. Shay. Sen. Mack, also nominated, bowed from the race.

Issues before the convention included the Viet Nam War, the recent ouster of Con. Adam Clayton Powell of New York and two score other major and minor issues. Heggbloom said the committee meeting was the hardest grind of some 30 similar conventions.

A prime issue was election of a vice chairman of the state central committee. Adelaide Hart, who held the post 14 years had announced she no longer was interested, so many delegates had decided to support others. When she changed her mind on holding the office, a caucus was required. By a vote of 44 to 43 Miss Hart won over Mrs. Robert D. (Patti) Knox.

The Schoolcraft group had three votes, with two for Miss Hart. It had the right to throw the entire three votes either way if unit vote was needed to break a tie. The Schoolcraft group went along with Clevenger with the entire 128 vote unit rule for Miss Hart on first ballot. However, when he also gave the entire vote on the second ballot, the district delegation became upset, resulting in a stage meeting between Clevenger, Soapy Williams, State chairman Staebler and Heggbloom. Heggbloom requested the right to again caucus in view of the nearly 50-50 tie on the first ballot, and Clevenger agreed. This resulted in one vote for Miss Hart and the rest unanimous for Mrs. Knox. Under unit rule this gave the whole 128 votes to Mrs. Knox on the third ballot and resulted in her election.

Con. Clevenger left the floor of the convention after the election and Heggbloom of Manistique was elected new chairman of the delegation. During the last two hours recommendations of the resolutions committee were considered. Delegates began to leave the auditorium gradually and when the gavel sounded the conclusion of the vast work of the convention, only Neil Downing of Mackinac City and the Schoolcraft delegation remained.

The last vote as cast by Heggbloom for the 11th district delegation was that of not laying on the table the Adam Clayton Powell resolution, upon which the resolutions committee worked from 1 to 4 a.m., but to allow it to come to final determination by open convention of the delegates. Only four of the 11th district 128 votes were still in the auditorium, but under unit rule a unanimous 128 were cast, "winning a battle for open caucuses openly arrived at."

As delegates were leaving, remaining resolutions were referred for adoption, amendment or rejection to the newly-elected Michigan Democratic resolutions committee. The Schoolcraft group returned here at 6 a.m., Monday.

Mixed Reception Given Road Plan

The Schoolcraft Board of Supervisors split 9-4 Tuesday night in voting on a proposal endorsing lake shore highways. If approved, the project would provide 600 miles of scenic highway along shorelines, it was noted, and Schoolcraft has much Great Lakes shore.

Some supervisors questioned if a Soo committee promoting it is working to bring the route to its area and one cited that less land would be available for lake shore subdivisions if the highways are constructed along the lakes.

A resolution also was adopted favoring prompt Federal Power Commission action to permit construction of a natural gas pipeline in the area, as part of its location to bring eastern Canada industries this fuel. The bid of Hoboluk Plumbing was accepted to rewire the

Hospital

Admitted to Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital were Earl Cox, George LaBash, Albert Clifton, Mildred Gardner, Jacqueline Jackson and Mary Chartier.

Discharged were Mitchel Demers, Charlotte Demers, Peter Stamness, Lorraine Jenerou, John Hanger, Charles Thelander, Anna Sommerfeld, Joan Skidmore and Christy Skidmore.

Negro Clergy Silent On Crime

DETROIT—A Negro spokesman has sharply criticized Negro clergymen in Detroit for not speaking out against what he called "an alarming crime rate committed by Negroes against Negroes."

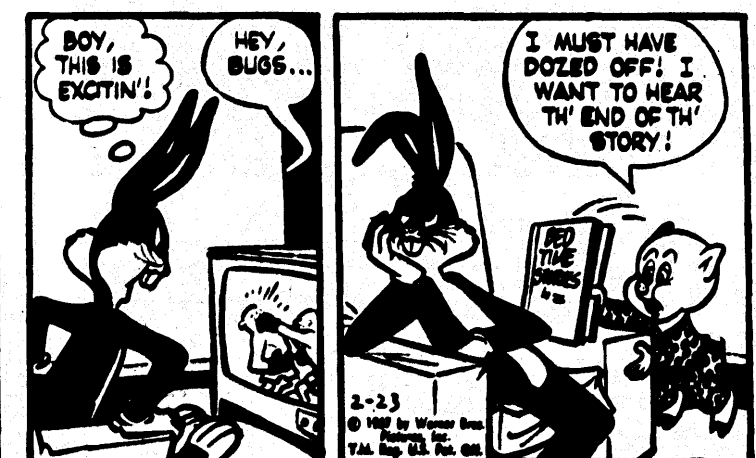

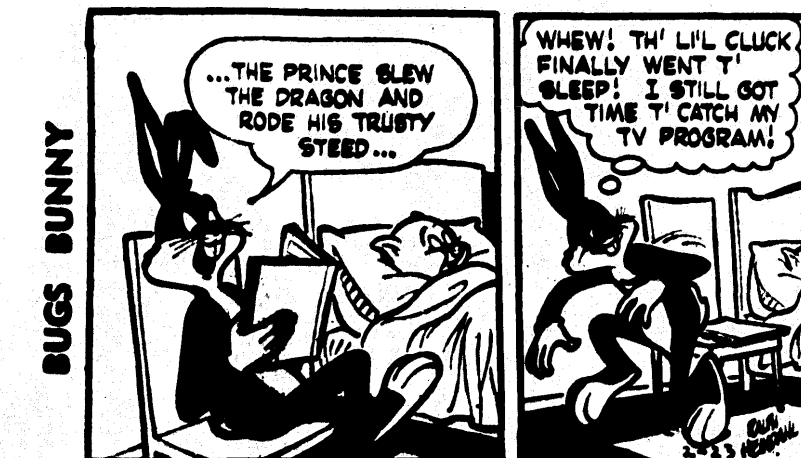

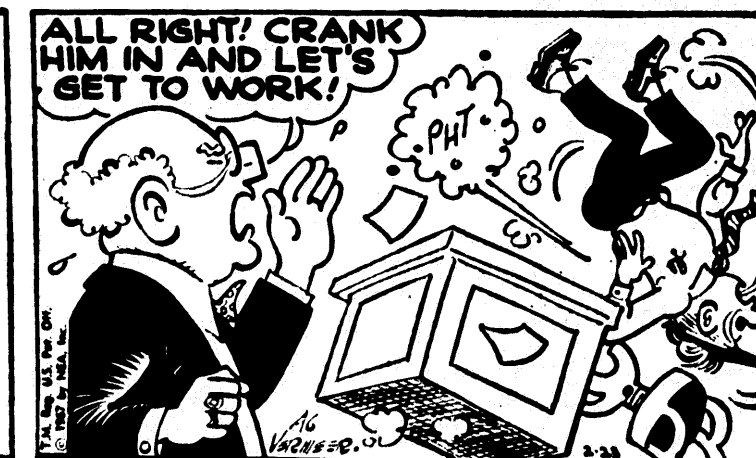

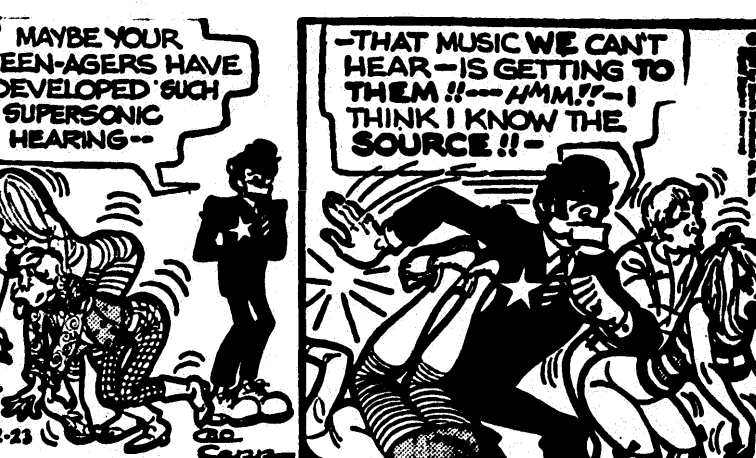

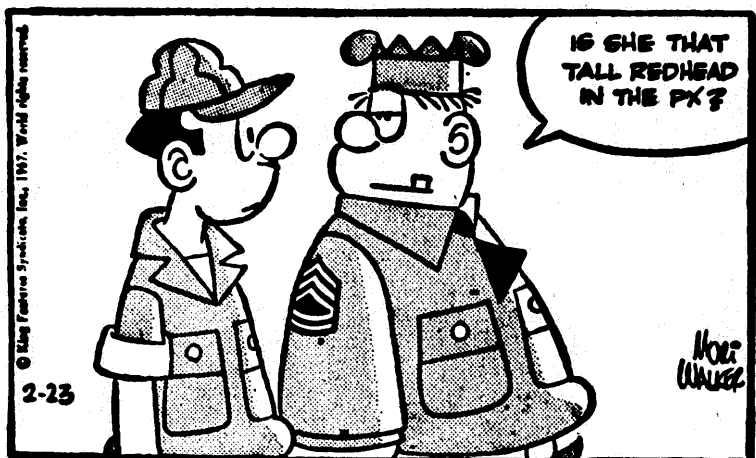

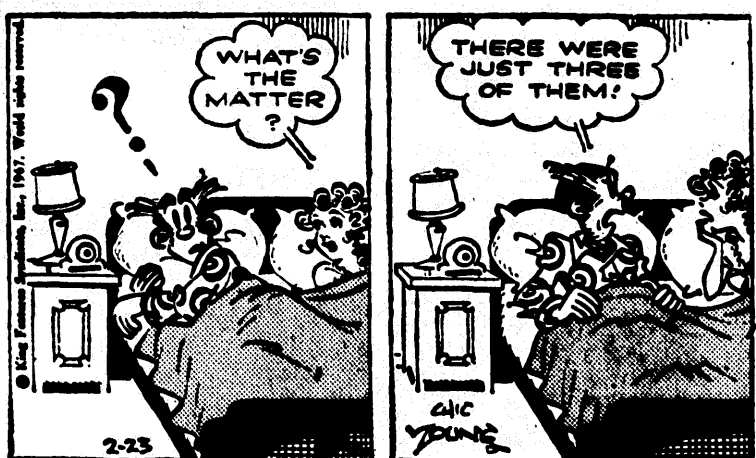

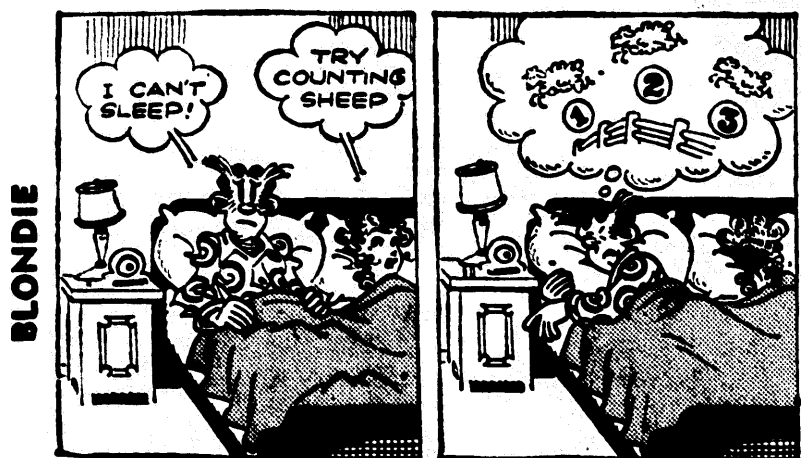

Nathan Bridges, chairman of the board of Crusade for the Negro, said that 95 per cent of the Negro community has been bullied by the 5 per cent hoodlum element.

"Many Negro ministers are refusing to hold evening services for fear that their parishioners will be attacked on their way home," Bridges said.

Some Fishing

Ending Feb. 28

Feb. 28 ends some winter ice fishing activities in the Delta-Marquette-Alger County district:

1. Fall and winter angling on certain waters for rainbow and brown trout ceases.
2. Winter spearing on inland waters and Upper Little Bay de Noc closes.

Certain other winter fishing activity continues legal for varying periods.

Continued heavy snows have curtailed activity and created transportation difficulties. Activity has generally been light and success mediocre, says Robert W. Timmer, Conservation Department district law supervisor.

Rod Carlson, Engadine High School football and basketball coach, will give up the cage job at the close of the current season for health reasons. He hopes to be able to continue as Engadine football coach. Engadine teams have made tremendous strides in interscholastic competition during his coaching career at the school.

Stock car racing will return to the Norway Fairgrounds next summer with a new track for the stocks and modified cars. A new three-eighth mile track will be built inside the present half-mile oval used for harness racing. Mike Porcarelli of Wakefield, one of the nation's outstanding junior skiers, took individual honors in the Upper Peninsula high school alpine finals at Mont Ripley near Houghton. Porcarelli was first in both the slalom and giant slalom events. Sue Fletcher of Marquette dominated the girls' division with first in both the events.

No less than seven Lake Superior State College players reached double scoring figures in a 133-84 victory over Northwestern College of Traverse City. Coach Jack Brighton's Lakers scored the laces with 61 field goals in 119 attempts for their 12th victory in 19 starts. John Barton paced the team with 24 points and 18 rebounds.

The Holy Name High School wrestling team, competing in the sport this season for the first time, made its best showing of the year in a dual match against Kingsford. Coach Bob Dufour's grapplers were edged by a 25-21 margin.

Marquette, Escanaba's final regular season basketball foe Friday night, wiped out a 10 point halftime deficit to nip Crusaders by a 56-54 margin. The Mariners, who trailed 40-20 at halftime, were paced by Randy Bogotka with 18 points while Bob Bartkowski added 12 and Mike Minsloff 11.

When the Mass Rockets bowed to Trout Creek, 82-73, it marked the last time Mass cage fans will ever see their team in a home game. Mass students will enter Ontonagon High School next fall in a consolidation move. Mass was once one of the Upper Peninsula's most famous small school cage powers, winning Upper Peninsula Class D championships in 1952, 1954 and 1955 and state crowns in 1948 and 1955.

Holy Cross To Get Bid?

By The Associated Press

They start naming the at-large selections today to college basketball's two major postseason tournaments, the NCAA and the NIT, and Holy Cross may be a surprise pick.

Virtually forgotten after they had lost four of their first five games, the Crusaders from Worcester, Mass., have put together a 14-3 record since then under the direction of Jack Donohue, perhaps better known simply as "Alcindor's coach."

This refers to Lew Alcindor, UCLA's supersophomore, who played under Donohue at Power Memorial High School in New York. Their paths parted in 1965 when Donohue became head coach at Holy Cross and Alcindor decided to enter UCLA.

The Crusaders won their sixth straight and seventh in their last eight by whipping Fordham on the road 73-63 Wednesday night. Led by juniors Keith Hochstein and Al Stazinski, the Crusaders pulled away after a 36-36 halftime tie. Hochstein and Stazinski each got 16 points.

Louisville, second-ranked nationally to unbeaten UCLA in The Associated Press poll, became the third team to qualify for the NCAA championship tourney.

The Cardinals crushed Drake 86-63 before a hometown turnout of 16,306 for their eighth in a row and 23-2 overall record. The victory wrapped up the championship of the Missouri Valley Conference and an automatic NCAA berth.

Westley Unseld and Jerry King each tallied 30 points to lead the Cardinals as they joined Western Kentucky and Connecticut in the NCAA field. Western Kentucky and Connecticut qualified earlier by winning the Ohio Valley Conference and Yankee Conference.

Fifth-ranked North Carolina pulled out a 79-78 road triumph over Maryland on two free throws by Dick Gruber in the last 23 seconds. Texas Western, 10th ranked, lost at home to the AAU Phillips Oilers, 67-61, in an overtime exhibition game.

Texas Western, as the defending national champions, appear certain to receive an NCAA bid, while Southern Illinois, which will not play in the NCAA college division tourney, may be invited to the NIT.

Aaron Gets Record Pay

By The Associated Press

Hank Aaron says he got the works from the Atlanta Braves, and Sonny Siebert thinks he's getting the works from the Cleveland Indians.

"I went for the works and got what I wanted," Aaron said Wednesday in confirming he and the Braves had reached agreement on a two-year contract calling for $100,000 a year.

The new contract gives Aaron an estimated $35,000 increase over last season when he hit .279 and led the National League with 44 home runs and 127 runs batted in, and makes him the highest-paid Brave ever.

Warren Spahn had been the highest paid, a reported $82,500.

Meanwhile, Siebert, who pitched the only no-hitter in the major leagues last season, issued a "pay me or trade me" ultimatum to General Manager Gabe Paul.

Siebert, who earlier vowed he'd sit at home in St. Louis until Paul is willing to rescind a proposal to cut his pay from last season when he was 16-8, said:

"This thing has reached the point now where it's not just money. Now I'm resentful. Now I want to be traded. I'll accept what Gabe has offered, but not from him."

Illinois Coaches May Be Fired

Slush Fund Activity Draws Severe Penalty

CHICAGO (AP) — The University of Illinois coaching jobs of Pete Elliott, Harry Combes and Howard Braun apparently were in the balance Thursday pending a statement from University President Dr. David D. Henry.

The statement, The Associated Press learned, is expected to include either notification of an appeal before the conference's faculty representatives in Chicago next week or announcement of dismissal of Elliott, football coach since 1960; Combes, basketball coach 20 years, and his assistant, Braun, who has been with him all that time.

Conference athletic directors threw the book at Illinois Wednesday. They voted unanimously to invoke the harshest penalty listed against the university for its self-acknowledged financial recruiting irregularities from an outside $21,000 slush fund.

The rule reads:

"Any member university which employs or retains on its athletic staff anyone who has violated, or who has been a party to a violation of the provisions of this (recruiting) rule, or who encourages others to violate this rule, shall be required to show cause why its membership in the conference should not be suspended or terminated."

The directors lowered the boom, ignoring a much less severe choice of penalty. They could have acted under another rule that provides only for reprimand or warning, or loss of personal contact with a prospective athlete for a period of time by a staff member found in violation.

The directors' action reportedly stunned Elliott, Combes and Braun as well as other university officials. None had comment.

When the slush fund scandal burst at Illinois in December, the university voluntarily disclosed facts of the matter to Big Ten Commissioner Bill Reed, imposed one year probation on Elliott and Combes and declared seven football and five basketball players indefinitely ineligible for accepting illegal financial assistance.

Such payments from the fund over a period of five years ranged from $15 a month to one of $50.

In 1967, football coach Phil Dickens of Indiana was suspended for one year for recruiting infractions. Demand of his dismissal was sidestepped.

Since this could be considered a precedent, Illinois may decide to appeal for suspension instead of dismissal of its coaches.

Faculty representatives rule with finality. It is within their power to ease the penalty if Illinois convincingly shows cause why it should be done. But the athletic directors apparently have paved the way for harshness.

The players' eligibility can be studied and ruled on by the faculty representatives.

Names of the football players involved never have been divulged. Basketball players included stars Rich Jones and Ron Dunlap, promising sophomore Steve Kuberski, another sophomore Steve Spanich, and freshman Randy Crews. All remained in school except Spanich, who transferred to St. Ambrose.

Before the Illinois case is closed action also must come from the NCAA. This probably will be in April.

Carilott Quits Spartan Staff

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A 38-year-old Michigan State aide has signed with the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets to take the reins as head defensive coach.

Vince Carilott was signed by newly appointed head Coach Bud Carson Wednesday.

Carilott was defensive backfield coach at Michigan State for seven years, during which time the Spartans were in the nation's top ten defensive teams four times.

Carilott played college football at Michigan State and won all-city honors while playing high school ball at George Washington in New York City.

"If I had my choice of any coach in the country, Vince would have been my first choice to head our defensive program," Carson said.

Carilott coached Concord High School from 1950 to 1952. The team was Class D state champion in 1952, and Carilott piled up a 21-3 record. He was backfield coach at Battle Creek Central High in 1953.

In 1964, as coach at East Lansing High, his teams compiled a 44-4 record and won state Class B championships in 1966 and 1968 and a co-championship in 1967.

Pro Grid Berth Eyed By Hawaii By 1972 Season

HONOLULU (AP) — Honolulu will make a bid for a National Football League franchise in the super jet era of 1972 before the owners get down to serious business today on the controversial common draft issue.

Kenneth Brown, a prominent Hawaii businessman, will tell the owners that Honolulu will have a 46,000-seat stadium no later than 1972 when travel time and costs will be drastically reduced.

Commissioner Pete Rozelle said Wednesday night the league had no timetable for immediate expansion but first would assess the success of the addition of recent new franchises. New Orleans begins operation this year as the 16th franchise.

Rozelle still is hopeful that the NFL will agree to separate regular and redshirt drafts in common with the American Football League. A red shirt is a player who still has college eligibility although his original class has graduated.

Green Bay, with 10 picks in the first five rounds and a vast reservoir of talent on a world championship club, would prefer a single draft. This permits the Packers to take a chance on a red shirt selection for the future with their picks while others must concentrate on their present status.

It is possible that some sort of compromise will be made to continue a single draft of all collegians for one year and then go into separate selections in 1968. However, Rozelle is on record as favoring two drafts this year.

The owners voted to retain the 40-player limit for a fourth straight year and also approved changes in the waiver rules that should help the weaker clubs.

Under the new rules, the last five players cut by a team to reach the 40-man limit, will be subject to irrevocable waivers. For example, as Green Bay

L'Anse Is Team To Beat In State Class C Meet; Wakefield Threat

By WILLIAM T. HALLS AP Sports Writer

When you're No. 1, everybody is gunning for you. But up in the Copper Country around L'Anse, Coach Bill (Sugar) Popp and his Purple Hornets are ready and waiting.

"We're not a one-man team by a long shot," says Popp. "We have a lot of things that figure. You have to have luck, you have to avoid the possibility of having a bad night, and you have to keep your fingers crossed."

"We won it last year and we have a better team this year," says Popp. "But there are a lot of things that figure. You have to have luck, you have to avoid the possibility of having a bad night, and you have to keep your fingers crossed."

The one-man team tag is hung on L'Anse because of 6-foot-5 senior center Jerry Gerard, a scoring machine with a 30.8 average and a knack for hauling in 15 rebounds a game.

Popp points out he also has Bobby Frederickson, a senior forward with a good scoring touch, and Dean Kent.

Kent, a junior guard, is the man who makes the Purple Hornets run - and shoot offense click, and is the key man in the team's fullcourt press defense.

Popp thinks Wakefield is the team to beat in the U.P. if L'Anse is to make it back to Lansing. Houghton also is tough, he said.

"Wakefield is taller than we are but we are a better team," said Popp. "It should be the game of the Upper Peninsula if we meet."

Wakefield Coach Jim Daniels likes his Cardinals' chances. "If we can get through the regionals," he says.

He thinks L'Anse will be hard to beat but adds "we play primarily Class B schools and they don't play too many big schools."

The Cardinals have 6-foot-6 Al Inkala, who weighs 200 pounds and averages 20 points and 20 rebounds a game. Dave Brown, a 6-foot-4 forward, contributes 14 points a game and John Francisco adds about 13.

"We've got good speed and a good bench," says Daniels. "But you've got to have a little luck. It's a long way to Lansing."

Daniels also is impressed by Houghton, beaten by 19 points by L'Anse, and likes Norway and Stephenson in the U.P.

Leslie Top Contender

"Crystal Falls could be a dark horse," he adds.

In the Lower Peninsula, Leslie's Blackhawks, Mount Pleasant Sacred Heart, Brooklyn and Charlevoix are top contenders. Flint Holy Redeemer, beaten 89-70 by L'Anse in last year's championship game, is aching for a rematch. The Flyers upended Willow Run, the No. 4 team in The Associated Press Class B poll, 81-76 Feb. 14, and figure to be tough with John Coggins and Ted Kramer holding hot shooting hands.

Muskegon Christian may be the dark horse downstate. The Warriors won state titles in 1968, 1962 and 1965 and were runners-up in 1959, all under Coach E. J. Walcott.

After 16 games, mostly against Class A and B teams, the Warriors boasted a 14-2 record. But as Walcott says, "It takes a lot of guts and luck to win it."

We Saw L'Anse

"We're doing much better than we should be doing," says Walcott. "We have no great individual player, but we have a good team attitude and a lot of desire. This may take us a long way."

Muskegon Christian is small, with 6-foot-3 Bob DeVries the tallest man, but Walcott says "We were out-rebounded only twice in our first 16 games."

DeVries leads a well-balanced offense with a 17-point average, and Dave Kool, the floor leader, chips in with around 12 a game. Walcott sees Shelby, with hot-shooting Bill Beckman, Mount Pleasant Sacred Heart and L'Anse as the top contenders.

"I saw L'Anse in the state finals last year and if they come back they'll make their presence known," he said.

Baldwin and Scottville, a couple of West Michigan teams, also are rounding into tournament form, and Capel in the Thumb area always is a contender.

Class B Cage Tournament Loaded With Good Teams

By WHITEY SAWYER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Grand Rapids East Christian has lost the 1-2 punch that led the team to the Michigan Class B basketball championship last year, but Coach Connie Bykerk's squad is coming on strong again.

East Christian lost 6-foot-7 Bernie Kuiper and 6-5 Bill Vandervoude, but "We definitely have more balance and we play better defense," Bykerk says.

Ron Filestre, 6-4, is the big man for East Christian this year. He's averaging 18 points a game and gathering 10 rebounds. Steve Veneklasen, a 6-4 guard, is another team leader cited by Bykerk.

Bykerk says there are a lot of tough Class B schools in his region. He says he's worried about Holland Christian, Spring Lake, Grand Rapids Kenowa Hills, Grand Rapids Godwin, Grand Rapids Rogers, Flushing, Marysville and South Haven.

South Haven, highly ranked in the AP poll, rides with Kennedy

McIntosh, a 6-8 center, and Dan Moorhead, who stands 6-3. McIntosh is averaging 22 points a game and Moorhead 15.

"We have been a pretty strong team all year," said South Haven Coach Joe Lineman. "I'd say a couple of strong teams around here include Kalamazoo Hackett, Albion and Stevensville Lakeshore."

Lineman also said he thought Grand Rapids East Christian would be tough again this year.

Marysville Coach Gary Lee cites three men as the heart of his squad: Ron Goodin, Bob Partridge and Denny Weymound.

Goodin is his big boy at 6-5 and averaging 23 points a game. Partridge is a 5-9 guard and Weymound stands 6-0. Both, he says, are outstanding shooters and average 15 points a game.

"We have a lot of speed and I think we have a really good chance," Lee says. He cited Marine City and Clintondale as dangerous teams in the region.

Caro Coach Bill Ullenbruch thinks his squad has a good chance. "My team is quite puzzling. We never really look good, but we keep winning," he says.

"We seem to come through in real great shape in the clutch, under pressure," he adds.

"I play nine boys all the time," he says, "and they all score, but Rich Campbell and Al Weak do an outstanding job."

Campbell is 6-4 and averaging 16 points.

Saginaw Carrollton, Saginaw Buena Vista, Frankenthum, Otisville, Elkton-Pigeon, Bayport, Flushing and Marysville are the teams Ullenbruch cites as dangerous.

'Gunsmoke' End Is Big Surprise

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — CBS, announcing its fall entertainment schedule Wednesday, had one big surprise among eight new programs and a major reshuffling of some established ones. The surprise was dropping 12-year-old "Gunsmoke" at season's end in favor of a private eye series.

"Gunsmoke" had occupied the network's Saturday night tail position and although it had not caused much comment since Marshal Dillon lost his comical sidekick Chester, it seemed a sturdy anchor in the schedule.

CBS, of course, may make some further adjustments in its schedule since one of the favorite gambits in the annual network chess game is to announce a program for one spot and then, later, move it to another. But as of now, this is the schedule CBS proposes for next season: Sunday night will start

MGM Fight Rivals Movies

NEW YORK (AP) — When better movies are made, maybe Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer will make them. But for what the ads call elemental passion, raw lust for power, intrigue and tinging suspense, they'll never draw MGM stockholders so close to the edges of their seats as the great MGM proxy fight of '67.

The last reel of this gripping human drama unfolds today at a stockholders' meeting where shareholders will vote for a 12-man board of directors, including a president, to run MGM.

But the socko ending won't be revealed for days or perhaps weeks, after election judges have declared a winner in the contest for control of one of the entertainment industry's biggest giants.

Thousands In Cast

The battle figures are big ones. Valued at a gross of $184,918,000, the 43-year-old film studio has 5,042,850 shares of common stock outstanding among some 12,000 shareholders.

This cast of thousands is divided — yet unknown proportions — between two warring generals, each backed by 12-man slates of board candidates, while in the wings waits "the cavalry," six mutual funds which control about 20 per cent of the stock. Their preferences were still unknown on the eve of the showdown; they could ride to the aid of either side at the last minute.

Cites Record

The generals are Robert H. O'Brien, 62, MGM president since 1963, and New Jersey land developer Philip J. Levin, 57, who bought into MGM in 1964 and is now on the board of directors.

Both men are running on O'Brien's management record, which O'Brien sums up this way: "Since he took over in January, 1963, MGM stock has turned from a $17.4-million, or $3.39-per-share, loss that year to a $10.2-million, or $2.03-per-share, profit in 1966. MGM has declared one 5 per cent stock dividend and two dividend increases, and the market value of MGM stock has increased by about 2 1/2 times.

Takes Opposite View

And, he adds, MGM has turned out some pretty good movies, including "Dr. Zhivago," which O'Brien predicts will gross $40 million, to become the fourth largest money-maker in film history.

Levin's view of the record is less kindly.

He contends: O'Brien's 12-man board gives rubber-stamp approval to anything O'Brien decides. O'Brien leaves too many recent films to television too soon and for too little money. MGM should return to the policy of developing big-name stars and keeping them under exclusive contract, rather than letting them free-lance. MGM should knock off the so-called package deals for production of films with independent producers, in which MGM pays the cost but the producer may own half the film.
